Supplementary Bar Courses

The following DePaul courses cover information that could be tested on the February 2027, July 2027, February 2028, and July 2028 bar exams. Students are encouraged to prioritize bar courses and consider the supplementary courses listed below. The National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBE) hasstated that for the bar exams administered from July 2026 to February 2028, performance tasks will mostlikely cover Family Law and Wills and Trusts (also referred to as Trusts and Estates). Taking these subjects could provide you with a better understanding of the subject matter. The MPT can cover any area of law. For the MPT, examinees will be provided with the necessaryinformation to complete a given task. This means you do not need to rely on memorized legalinformation for the performance tasks.

The College of Law offers a variety of international exchanges, practicums and study abroad opportunities. For more details and application information for the individual programs, see http://www.law.depaul.edu/academics/study_abroad/default.asp. Please note these credits count toward a student's spring credit load. Full-time students are limited to 16 credits per semester; part-time students are limited to 12 credits per semester. Graduating students may receive permission to add an extra credit in the final semester. Additional tuition charges apply for the overload credit.
